

LEGACY MARK

A Pirate Head graphic has traditionally represented ECU Athletics dating back to the adoption of Pirates as the school mascot. This specific pirate head was implemented as the primary mark in 1998 and represents the history and tradition of the ECU athletics program, and as such, ties the past and the future together. The legacy mark should be used in areas such as the Hall of Fame, letterwinners and/or tradition areas, and other endeavors which recognize the history of Pirate Athletics. This mark can be used in association with other official identifiers with appropriate administrative approval.
